Both nations profess themselves nearly for the contest. Both are willing, and it only depends upon the will of Basmarck how soon the most stupendous of all modern wars will be opened.

The war in Unba seems about approaching its close, Valmuseda the Captain 'i neval confessing his inability to conquer the putriots, by withdrawing his forces from his advanced positions. The Cubans deserve their independence, for they have resisted for six years odds immeasurably against them. Tae secret of their success was the undivided unanimity and their determination to sacrince every comfort and convenience of life to secure what shall it do with them? and convenience of life to secure what shall it do with them? liberty. Whether they will make good use of it, is altogether another question. Peace will bring prosperity, and wrecked, with the loss of 311 lives, that will give the United States good markets for its products, and cherp sugar in return.

Talk about Legislative expenses! The Legislature of Louisiana for 1869 sat one month and cost the State 3000 000. Each member pocketed $7,000 for his share. This is what the tax-payers of that plundered State have had to endure.
